NEWS ITEMS

ACADEMIC

Item: Missing books from Documentation Centre.

Details: Joan Kohner is half-way through an inventory of the Reading Room's holdings and has already discovered that 64 books are missing. These include the whole section on Native Indian Women, Chinese Women and many books on Women in Canada. Please let us know if you have any thoughts about how to avoid such abuses in the future. Do you think it would be a good idea to limit use of the Documentation Centre to hours when the Documentalist is actually there? Also, if you have any books, please return them for the inventory.

Item: Course - Women and the Fine Arts (FFAR 320) - Fall 1989.

Details: Tues. 1:30 - 5:30 - an investigation of the visual and performing arts as they pertain to issues of gender. The course develops studio practice in relation to theoretical and critical concerns. Follow-up course (FFAR 420) will be offered for first time in Fall, 1989. Information - 848-4601.

Item: $2500 scholarship from Planned Parenthood Federation of Canada for graduate studies in reproductive health.

Details: Application deadline May 1, 1989. Application consists of a typed essay of between 500 and 700 words, outlining education and background in health/women's issues. Include full details of academic record. Further information posted on Academic Bulletin Board.

SOCIAL CONCERNs

Item: CCLOW (Canadian Congress for Learning Opportunities for Women).

Details: CCLOW seeks financial support to help them continue their role in conducting research, public education, and advocacy on women's education and training issues. More information on Social Concerns Bulletin Board.

Item: Canadian Civil Liberties Association seeks donations.

Details: See Social Concerns Bulletin Board.

Item: Upstream Journal, March 1989.

Details: The latest issue of this publication from the Social Justice Committee is now available in the Documentation Centre. There is also a copy in main office.

April 6 THE FORGOTTEN WAR - a video produced by PBS, documenting the war in El Salvador. 4:00 p.m., Hall Bldg, Rm. 820. Following the video, Lorraine Guay will speak about her recent trip to El Salvador and the elections there.
